WAYNE/WINFIELD AREA YOUTH/FAMILY SERVICES (WAYS) After School Program 2009-2010

WHEN:

Programming runs Mondays -Thursdays from 3-6pm & Fridays 3-5pm.

WHO:

Elementary and middle school children from West Chicago, Winfield, Wayne, Warrenville, Carol Stream, Hanover Park, and Bartlett may participate. Children participate in activities as a large group and for certain activities may split into smaller groups by age.

WHERE:

WAYS After School Program is located at WAYS office:
27W031 North Avenue in West Chicago, IL

(Inside the Wayne Township Building next to "Red Hawk Park")

During the year, the After School Program will plan several field trips. Parents will be informed of the details and sign a permission slip. Parents may volunteer to help WAYS staff by offering to help chaperone these events and provide transportation.

WHAT:

WAYS After School Program is a program offered to give children positive ways to spend their time after school hours when many of them go home to an empty house. WAYS goal is to promote a supervised, positive, recreational environment filled with fun activities and friends. WAYS provides physical activity such as outdoor games and sports (weather permitting), field trips and fun teamwork activities.
